STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Following release from imprisonment, the court will evaluate defendant's status and determine whether, after incarceration, mental health treatment is necessary and appropriate. If additional treatment is deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a program as designated by the court, upon consultation with the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all the requirements of the program.
2. The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, and dangerous weapons.
3. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, or office, to searches conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to searches may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct searches pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

Defendant must also comply with the following Sex Offender Conditions:

1. The defendant shall register with all local and state sex offender registration agencies in any jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed, carries a vocation, is a student, or is otherwise required to register by SORNA.
2. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact at any time, for any reason, with any victim identified in the presentence report or any victim's family.
3. The defendant shall not contact or communicate, directly or indirectly, with persons less than 18 years of age ("minors"). This includes communication by any means, including verbal, written, telephonic, electronic or other communications. The prohibition against communication with minors is intentionally wide-ranging, encompassing the transmission of any information, whether by audio, video, digital or other means. It includes, but is not limited to, any communications via the Internet, cellular phone, any cellular phone or computer application, text message, social media, social networking website, blog, peer to peer file sharing network or other method. This provision does not encompass minors working as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, and similar service positions with whom the defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
4. However, the defendant is authorized contact with minors 1) who are relatives of the defendant; 2) who have familial relationships with relatives of the defendant; or 3) who have been identified and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The contact may occur only in the presence of another adult and with the prior approval of the probation officer. In considering approval of such contact, the probation officer should make an individualized inquiry and a particularized showing of need for the condition.
5. The defendant shall not use any computer, cellular telephone, Internet-capable device, GPS device or other device to contact a minor, gather information about a minor, or locate a minor.
6. The defendant shall not be employed in any position or participate as a volunteer in any activity that involves contact with minors without prior approval of the probation officer. The defendant may not engage in an activity that involves being in a position of trust or authority over a minor.

The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to his or her condition; complete all treatment recommendations, which may include physiological testing (i.e. polygraph exams), and abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions imposed by the treatment provider until discharged from treatment by the provider.
9. Because the defendant used a computer, cellular device or the Internet in connection with a sex offense, the defendant may not purchase, possess, or use any computer as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), cellular telephone, or other Internet-capable device without the prior approval of the court, upon consultation with the probation officer. In cases where approval is granted by the court, use of such devices shall be conditioned on defendant's compliance with the Computer Monitoring Program authorizing the probation office to identify, monitor, access and seize any such devices under the defendant's control.
10. The defendant must immediately disclose to the probation officer all computer device(s), cellular telephone(s), or Internet-capable devices to which the defendant has access.
11. The defendant shall participate in the Computer Monitoring Program adopted by this court and comply with all of the conditions in the program's Participant Agreement. The defendant shall allow monitoring software/hardware to be installed on each computer, electronic communication device, or other Internet-capable device the defendant has access to at the defendant's expense.
12. The defendant shall allow the probation officer to monitor his computer activities at any time, in the lawful discharge of the officer's duties. 15. The defendant shall not possess any bindings, restraints, handcuffs, or other sadomasochistic paraphernalia.
16. The defendant shall notify employers, family members, and others with whom the defendant has regular contact of the defendant's sex offender conditions and that the defendant is under supervision by the probation officer.
